Towards a Spoken Dictionary of Maskwacîs Cree speech-db.altlab.app

Antti Arppe[1], Jolene Poulin[1], Atticus Harrigan[1], Katherine Schmirler[1], Daniel Dacanay[1], Rose Makinaw[2]

[1]Alberta Language Technology Lab (ALTLab)
[2]Maskwacîs Education Schools Commission (MESC)

What is it?

A way of storing and sorting the results of the language documentation process

Primarily an online resource for spoken Indigenous languages

Also used to validate the spelling and pronunciation of entries in these languages

Currently has many instantiations

Most often used: Maskwacîs, mōswacīhk, and Tsuut’ina

Requires a login

- Linguist, Expert, or General User levels of access

Maskwacîs

Recordings dating back to 2014

From 36 speakers

Over 20,000 entries with even more recordings

Currently being validated with Rose Makinaw (MESC) and Daniel Dacanay (UofA)

mōswacīhk

Recordings from this year

One primary speaker

Over 1,500 entries + more recordings

Currently being added to and validated by Jean Okimāsis and Arok Wolvengrey

Tsuut’ina

Recordings from 2015 and 2019

One primary speaker

Just under 10 000 entries with at least as many recordings

More entries are on their way

Instructions

Record a new Entry

Use this page to record or re-record entries in Maskwacîs. Start by entering the transcription (in Maskwacîs) and the translation (in English) for the word or sentence you are going to record. Try to spell the Maskwacîs word(s) as correctly as possible, as these recordings will be added to an existing entry if one exists.

Next, click the "Record" button. It will likely ask you permission to use your microphone, please click "Allow". You are now recording, as indicated by the word "Recording..." on the button. When you are finished, press "Stop". Listen to your recording. The final 0.1 seconds will be trimmed from your recording, so you can ignore any mouse click sounds there. If your recording goes to the very end of the track, please re-record yourself with a second of pause at the end. Otherwise, if you're happy with how it sounds, click "Save" next to that recording. Please record yourself saying this word or phrase up to 3 times, clicking save next to each good recording and ignoring any that you are unhappy with. To record a new word or phrase, click the "Record a new Entry" button.

Please note that pressing the "Record a new Entry" button or reloading the page will cause all your current unsaved recordings to disappear, so make sure you're done with them and have saved all the good ones before doing either of those actions.

Instructions

Record a new Entry

Use this page to record or re-record entries in Maskwacîs. Start by entering the transcription (in Maskwacîs) and the translation (in English) for the word or sentence you are going to record. Try to spell the Maskwacîs word(s) as correctly as possible, as these recordings will be added to an existing entry if one exists.

Next, click the "Record" button. It will likely ask you permission to use your microphone, please click "Allow". You are now recording, as indicated by the word "Recording..." on the button. When you are finished, press "Stop". Listen to your recording. The final 0.1 seconds will be trimmed from your recording, so you can ignore any mouse click sounds there. If your recording goes to the very end of the track, please re-record yourself with a second of pause at the end. Otherwise, if you're happy with how it sounds, click "Save" next to that recording. Please record yourself saying this word or phrase up to 3 times, clicking save next to each good recording and ignoring any that you are unhappy with. To record a new word or phrase, click the "Record a new Entry" button.

Please note that pressing the "Record a new Entry" button or reloading the page will cause all your current unsaved recordings to disappear, so make sure you're done with them and have saved all the good ones before doing either of those actions.
